Your Membership

Your membership is more than “just joining another group.” As a member, you become part of the ongoing story of Naval Aviation in the Pacific Northwest.

Local history has a global reach. Visitors from Japan touring the PBV-5A Catalina aircraft.

Your help keeps alive the history and tradition of honoring all who have served, both active duty military and civilian. History deserves to be preserved and presented to current and future generations.

Whidbey Island and the Pacific Northwest are rich in the history of Naval Aviation and patriotic community support.

Membership Does Matter

A quality museum is expensive. No museum survives financially on admissions alone.

Admissions, membership dues and donations pay the rent, utilities and basic expenses.

Your membership helps preserve local, regional and national history.

Along with your membership, you are entitled to free admission at our sister museums: the Museum of Flight in Seattle and the Canadian Museum of Flight in Langley, B.C.
